

The Beautiful Southern Ride is a fund raising event to benefit the philanthropies of the Rotary Club of Carbondale Breakfast such as, Carbondale Boys and Girls Club.

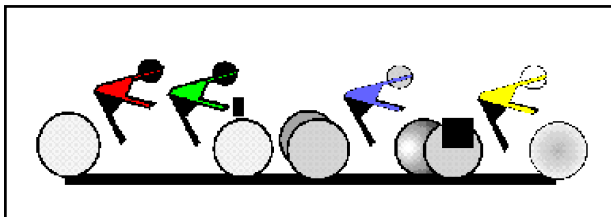

The routes include some challenging hills, south of Carbondale, passing lakes, wineries, and orchards.

The 30 mile ride goes south from the start into Giant City Park. Hilly with a long, fast downhill into Makanda and then uphill to the Visitor Center and the rest stop. After the rest stop there is a lovely long stretch of Spillway Road in the Crab Orchard Wildlife Refuge.

The 62 mile ride is a challenging ride that goes south and west from the start and follows the Wine Trail to Pomona and the first rest stop. From Pomona the ride travels east to join the 30 mile ride in Makanda for the 2nd rest stop and the ride back to Carbondale.

The 75 mile ride follows the 30 mile ride to Giant City Park and then goes north of Carbondale to Elkhaville and Desoto through open and relatively flat countryside.

All three rides finish where they started at Carbondale Middle School.

Directions

From I-57, go west on IL-13 10 miles to Giant City Rd, turn left/south and go 1 mile to Grand Ave, turn right/east 0.5 mile to the Carbondale Middle School at 1150 East Grand Ave.

Event Information

Choose from a 30 mile ride, 62 mile ride, or 75 mile ride. The terrain is flat to rolling with some challenging hills.

All rides start and end at the Carbondale Middle School. Restrooms are available at the school.

Registration is from 7-9 a.m. SAGs end at 4 p.m. Plan to start in time to finish by 4 p.m.

The routes are marked, and cue sheets will be provided. Route maps are available on our website. The rides will have rest stops with snacks, water and Gatorade. All routes will be sagged.

Helmets must be worn by all riders. Cyclists must obey all traffic rules.
