Club Banners

One colorful tradition of Rotary is exchange of club banners. Rotarians traveling to distant locations often take banners to exchange at make-up meetings as a token of friendship. Many clubs use the decorative banners they have received for attractive displays at club meetings and district events.

The approximately 20,000 banners in the Rotary History and Archives collection reflect clubs' hometown pride and their connection with the international organization.

In addition to incorporating the Rotary emblem, banners often include symbols or imagery of a club's town, region, or country. Others represent local craftsmanship or cultural traditions by displaying leatherwork, weaving, embroidery, or hand-painted designs.

Long-standing members of this club will fondly remember Margaret "Sugie" Keen, who died recently in South Carolina at the home of her daughter. Sugie was the widow of our charter President, Bob Keen. We remember her lovely Christmas receptions, in addition to her amazing collection of Christmas decorations. – Blanche Sloan
